

John Pack Family Association

<http://www.johnpackfamily.com>

The John Pack Family Association (JPFA) is a large ancestral family organization which is committed to preserving and continuing the legacy of John Pack (top left photo), who was a Captain in the Nauvoo Legion, the senior President of the Eight Quorum of the Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and a noted Mormon Pioneer.

Search

Last Name:

First Name:

- Advanced Search
- Surnames
- Log In
- John Pack
 - Julia Ives
 - Ruth Mosher
 - Nancy Aurelia Booth
 - Eliza Jane Graham
 - Mary Jane Walker
 - Jessie Bell Stirling
 - Lucy Jane Giles
 - Jane Robison
- Recent Additions
- Unsolved Mysteries
- Photos
- Histories
- Documents
- Other Media
- Cemeteries
- Places
- Statistics
- Change Language
- Bookmarks
- Contact Us

The John Pack Family History

and Genealogy Database

Description

Ancestry of George Pack by Kathleen P. Skinner

Twenty-five page discussion of what is known of George Pack, his family, and his ancestry, with sources. Includes a 5-page report of her May 5-20, 2009, trip establish George Pack was from the Elizabethtown area.

Biography of Julia Ives Pack - Veldon Hodgson

Compiled by Veldon R. Hodgson, Historian, The John Pack Family Association, 17 June 1995

Books on John Pack

Both books are available for purchase from The John Pack Family Association.